Professional Remodeler

40 young leaders shaping the future of the industry

40 UNDER 40

By Jonathan Sweet, Editor in Chief

Change and disruption breed innovation. And who better to innovate than a new generation of successful industry leaders?

The individuals on the following pages represent the future of the residential construction industry. From a consultant that helps homeowners manage the remodeling process to green gurus to second- (and third-) generation remodelers that are carrying on a family tradition of quality, they're 40 of the brightest stars in remodeling.

We proudly present the first Professional Remodeler 40 Under 40, chosen by the editors of Professional Remodeler and HousingZone.com.
